Inherent Risks and Assumption of Risk. The undersigned acknowledges there are inherent risks associated with equine activities such as described below, and hereby expressly assumes all risks associated with participating in such activities. The inherent risks include, but are not limited to the propensity of equines to behave in ways such as, running, bucking, biting, kicking, shying, stumbling, rearing, falling or stepping on, that may result in an injury, harm or death to persons on or around them; the unpredictability of equine's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals; certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions; collisions with other animals; the limited availability of emergency medical care; and the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the animal or not acting within such participant's ability.

Participant expressly releases Ohio Dressage Society, South Wind Stables, Gigi Nutter and any and all instructors/ clinicians/judges/officials, owners, volunteers, staff, spectators and any person connected with the clinic and barns from liability from any negligence resulting in any injury or accidents to myself, my children, heirs, property and horse.

Warning

Under Ohio law, an equine activity sponsor, equine activity participant, equine professional, veterinarian, farrier, or other person is not liable in damages in a tort or other civil action for harm that an equine activity participant allegedly sustains during an equine activity and that results from an inherent risk of an equine activity, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Annotated § 2305.321 (2001).

All participants are required to wear protective equipment, as defined by the USEF.
