Every generation brings with it individuals whose teaching expand our personal expectations and horizons. In meeting GaWaNi Pony Boy, you will realize that you are in the presence of one of this generations great teachers. Pony's teaching skills have caused him to become the most sought after horse behaviorist in the United States and in high demand throughout the world.

Having begun his career as the horse industry's resident expert on horse/human relationships, Pony continues to deal with real-life issues in his signature "tell-it-like-it-is" style at clinics and workshops

Horses Teaching
People Clinic
May 15-16, 2010

Learn from the renowned expert on horse/human relationships.
Leave with the tools and knowledge needed
to build a positive and effective relationship with your horse.

This 2-day course teaches students and auditors ground exercises such as controlling forward movement, gait control, changing direction, the outside turn, the inside turn, working outside of the round pen, and overcoming obstacles. These exercises are essential to gaining your horse's trust and respect as well as giving students a completely new understanding of their horse's motivations and attitudes. This course also includes a mini course on stretches for horse and rider.
